"It was our pleasure to have John Mattone keynote the 2010 Austin Human Resource Association annual conference. As the Chairperson of the Speakers Committee, John was a pleasure to work with. I originally contacted John about presenting a session about HR Management, and after additional discussion with him, John was willing to customize a presentation to truly fit our Chapter's specific request and his presentation was also approved for HRCI credit. Some of our attendee comments included:

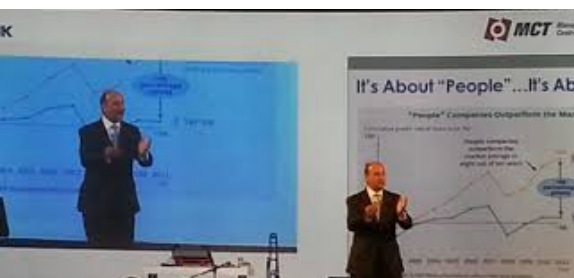

"His passion shows-inspiration helps. Appreciated the handouts and article."

"Very stimulating, thought-provoking."

"Wonderfully engaging speaker, wish there was more time."

"Thank you so much. By far, the best keynoter we hired."

"Excellent, lots of food for thought and follow-up."

It was my pleasure to work with John and we certainly hope he will speak to our Chapter in the future!"

Wendy Chance,
2011 President,
Austin Human Resource Association

"John Mattone's dynamic personality, true interest in his clients, terrific sense of humor, and human capital expertise make him one of the most in-demand and electric speakers in the talent management field. Having him present four times for a previous company I was affiliated with, I can say his evaluations were exceptional and he was a delight to work with."
