JOHN MATTONE

John Mattone is widely regarded as one of the world's leading authorities on leadership, talent and culture. He is a respected advisor and coach to Fortune 1000 CEO's and senior leadership teams on how to create and sustain a leadership and talent culture that drives superior operating results. John is the author of eight books including three best-sellers and he has been recognized by The Thinkers 50 and Globalgurus.org as one of the world's top ten leadership authorities and executive coaches. Recently, John was honored by his executive coaching peers (The Association of Corporate Executive Coaches), with the prestigious 2015 International Executive Coach Thought Leader of Distinction Award, in recognition of his thought leadership and his work as a global executive coach. John holds a B.S. Degree in Management and Organizational Behavior from Babson College and an M.S. in Industrial/Organizational Psychology from the University of Central Florida. John serves on the EMBA faculty at Florida Atlantic University where he teaches his popular course, Global Leadership Assessment and Development and ZfU International Business School in Zurich, Switzerland.

On a personal note, John and his wife Gayle have been married for 37 years and are the proud parents of four adult children (Jared, Nick, Kristina and Matthew).

MENTORSHIP FROM 14 OF TODAY'S TOP CEOs

In today's rapidly changing business world, two primary challenges face top CEOs worldwide: solving the "leadership gap" and mastering the art of creating a sustainable corporate culture.

In his new book, international leadership coach John Mattone unlocks the keys to leadership development and cultural transformation through intimate interviews with fourteen top CEOs from organizations including Deloitte, Graybar, The North Face, HP Financial, Ovation Brands, Virtusa, and Bigcommerce.

The book is an invaluable resource for anyone interested in becoming a better leader or cultural advocate, offering unfiltered access to some of today's most successful business leaders. Through fourteen intimate "fireside chats," you'll discover what made each executive successful, and how they have learned—through triumph, failure, reflection, and perseverance—to lead in a way that has ignited their teams to achieve personal and collective greatness. Interviews include:
